Auto Dealer Monthly Recognizes ADESA with Two Dealers' Choice Awards

Carmel, IN—ADESA today announced it received two of Auto Dealer Monthly's prestigious Dealers' Choice Awards.

In the category of purchasing inventory, ADESA's online auctions received top place with the Diamond Award. ADESA was also recognized in this area in 2007.

In the category of traditional auction companies, ADESA's brick-and-mortar auctions placed second with a Platinum Award. In fact, ADESA has won awards in the brick-and-mortar category four out of the past five years.

"We listened to what dealers wanted—both at auction and online. Then, with an increased focus and commitment to serving the needs of dealers using ADESA.com, we set out to build confidence in our online offerings," said Jason Ferreri, ADESA vice president of e-business sales and operations. "We worked diligently to offer products such as standardized condition reports and post-sale inspections. We were also careful not to forget the relationship piece of any online transaction. Dealers want to know they can call and talk to a real person if they have any issues while buying online."

For these awards, ADESA was scored by dealers on three areas: product or service provided, customer support service and overall value of dollars spent.
