

Get faster access to purchases by linking your bank account with ADESA

ADESA (part of KAR Global) uses Plaid to securely link your bank account so you can immediately start using it to pay for your purchases. Plaid enables millions of customers around the world to connect their financial accounts at over 11,000 institutions globally to more than 4,000 apps, including Venmo, Acorns, Expensify and Betterment.

In order to get the fastest access to your Vehicle Release form and take full advantage of the new Purchases Page, you'll need to link your payment account to ADESA via Plaid. Once enabled, you'll be able to select the enrolled account for payment.

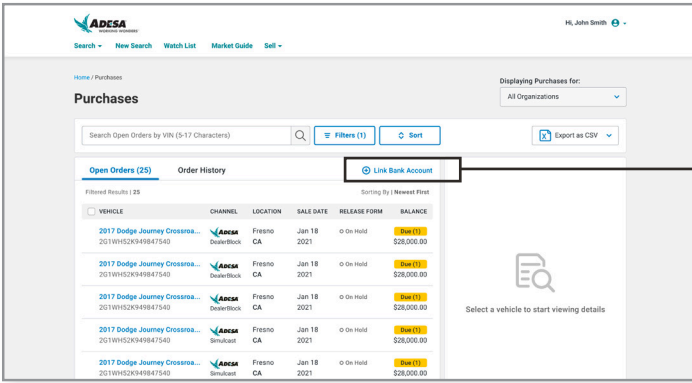

Follow the steps below to register in under a minute!

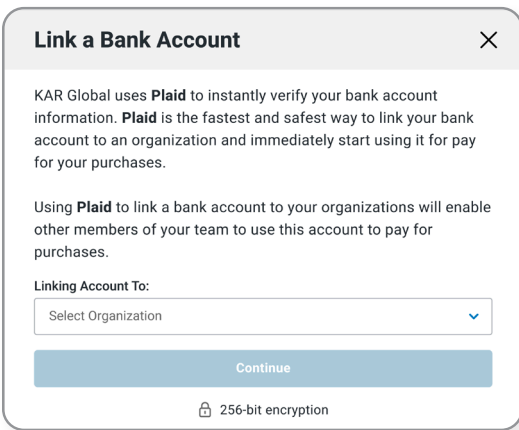

STEP 1:

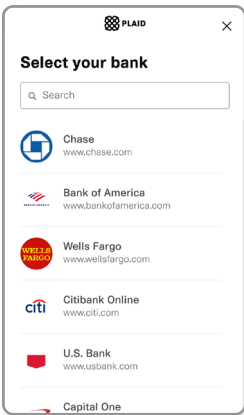

From the ADESA Home Page, use the dropdown next to your name to find and select Purchases BETA.

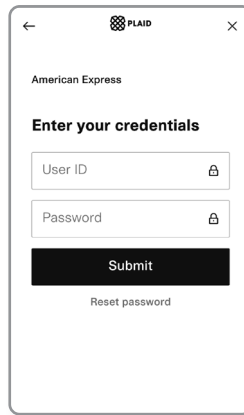

STEP 2:
On the top right,
select Link Bank Account.

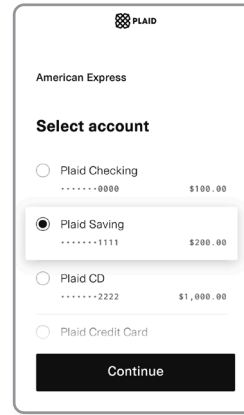

STEP 3:
Link your account to your organization. This will allow other members of your organization within the same 5 million Auction Access number to use this account to pay for purchases.

STEP 4:
Select
your bank.

STEP 5:
Enter your banking credentials.

Step 6:
Choose the account you'd like to use for payment.

That's it!

You're now ready to experience the full power of the ADESA Purchases Page!
